VOL. IX. NO. 17. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1903. PRICE 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The fact that Macduff, sire of the sensational McChesney, was put to death in 1899 has been developed by numerous breeders throughout the country writing to Col. M. Young, proprietor of McGrathiana Farm, his owner, asking for seasons to him. Macduff was bred at the Brookdale Farm of the late D. D. Withers, near Red Bank, N. J., where James Rowe now trains Mr. Keene's horses. He was by Maccaroon—Jersey Lass, by King Ernest. He and Macduff were two famous horses in the string of James N. Galway and raced for him with much distinction. Macduff sired, besides McChesney, Macbeth II., winner of the Kentucky Derby in 1887; Satsuma, winner of the Burns Handicap in 1898, and the great race mare Daisy F. Young paid $7,500 for him. He lost his popularity at the age of twenty and Manager Stevens was asked to give him away or kill him, and failing to find a taker caused him to be killed.

While exercising the steeplechase horse Dick Furber over the Montgomery Park jumps last Friday morning "Pete" Clay, the one-time famous colored jockey, fell, and suffered what may prove serious injuries. Clay was going at full speed with Dick Furber when the horse stumbled and pitched the jockey headlong into the fence which forms the sides of the jump. Clay was picked up unconscious and taken to the stabling quarters of H. S. Tracy & Co., for whom Clay will ride this year. Clay was prominent a few years back by his handling of the famous mare Imp.

W. O. B. Macdonough retires from the ranks of turfmen after Thursday, January 22, when all his horses, except Honiton, will be disposed of by auction at San Francisco. He has decided that there is money in breeding racehorses, but racing them is quite another matter, and the combination of both is not good. Honiton, who is by Ormonde, is to be reserved for the stud. The list of horses to be offered follows:

Beau Ormonde, ch. h., 5, by Ormonde—Miss Brumel.
St. Phillipina, br. f., 4, by St. Carlo—Bessie W.
Orsius, br. c., 3, by Orsini—China Rose.
Organdie, br. f., 3, by Orsini—Bessie W.
Orfeo, b. c., 3, by Orsini—Moonlit.
Orsina, blk. f., 3, by Orsini—Sloe.
Glenarvon, b. c., 3, by Orsini—Glenlivet.
Ch. c., 2, by Brutus—Golden Locks.

A. Featherstone has decided that he doesn't need a successor to jockey Winnie O'Connor, who is under contract to ride in France. Having secured second call upon the services of Willie Shaw, Mr. Featherstone will place his main reliance in that jockey this season at least. When George E. Smith (Pittsburg Phil), who has first call on Shaw's services, starts a horse in a race where Mr. Featherstone has an entry the latter will, of course, be compelled to look elsewhere for a jockey. He is perfectly willing to take chances, however.

Alex Shields in a recent visit to his horses at Gravesend had this to say about them: "The string is wintering in grand shape, especially Advance Guard. The old campaigner who showed so many good performances last year looks as big as an elephant and feels like a yearling. The splendid showing made by Advance Guard last season, it was generally thought, was due in no slight measure to the fact that he had been given the first let up of his career the previous winter. He proved a good breadwinner in the Shields colors, and from the glowing report of his condition at present is likely to show his oldtime form again this season."

The Lotos Stable, trained by Ed Heffner, now wintering at the Sheephead Ray track, has had the misfortune to lose its promising chestnut colt by Goldfinch—Connemara. This was a grand-looking colt, and from his yearling trials gave promise of making a race horse. This is the second colt the stable has lost in the last month. The colt by Loyalist—Miss Courtney, which died three weeks ago, was also a promising colt.

It is rumored that thirteen mares owned by Ed Corrigan have slipped their foals at his stock farm near Lexington. It is attributed to the long trip they had to take to reach Corrigan's new breeding stud in Kentucky this year is traced to the farms where corn fodder has been extensively fed. The fodder is scattered on the ground, and in continuous rainy weather naturally gets mildewed. The stock then eats it in this condition, with chances of more or less serious results.

E. J. Lyons, the railway magnate of St. Louis, is the latest addition to the ranks of thoroughbred owners who will make an effort to win fame and fortune through the medium of a racing stable. He has two youngsters now under the care of trainer Joe Chinn, and the latter has received a letter from him stating that he would be in Lexington by February 1, and that he would make additions to his stable if he could find suitable horses at suitable prices.

W. F. Presgrave has bought the contract of jockey Haack, and has signed the boy for the next three years to ride for the Goughacres Stable. Haack has ridden some fair races at New Orleans. No doubt Mr. Presgrave discovered talent in him. In any event Mr. Presgrave will have a long period in which to develop Haack, and under the proper tuition the boy may make a good rider.

Articulate, the winner of all sorts of races in all sorts of company last season, is entered in stakes for the metropolitan tracks this year—the June handicaps and others—in the name of W. C. de B. Lopez. Mr. Lopez bred Articulate, bringing his dam, Utter, from Australia, and last year the colt was leased to G. A. Davis and handled by R. A. Smith. Under the new rules Articulate is entered in the name of the owner.

A meeting of the Canadian Jockey Club was held last Saturday at Toronto with W. Hendrie, president, in the chair. The Ontario Jockey Club, Hamilton and Windsor tracks, were represented. The Fort Erie Jockey Club was admitted to membership. The meeting is the first the Canadian Jockey Club has held since its organization, five years ago, and is regarded as the first step toward taking the control of racing in Canada into its own hands.

M. V. Jacobson, of Lexington, Ky., will ship to Churchill Downs three good two-year-olds to be trained. The most promising one of the string is a colt by Aintree—Chantress, she by Siddartha. Jacobson has just refused an offer of $1,500 for this youngster from a prominent Louisville politician, who is desirous of entering the racing game.

"Monk" Coburn is becoming decidedly uneasy at San Francisco. The winter season is wearing away and thus far he has not been able to gain any satisfaction from the stewards of the New California Jockey Club in regard to a new hearing. Coburn has been on the ground six weeks.

T. C. McDowell's young broodmare Bracegirdle is now in foal to Kinley Mack, the only winner of both the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. If the foal is a colt Mr. McDowell says he will enter him in the English classics, the Derby, Two Thousand Guineas and St. Leger.

W. T. Woodard, Jr., of Lexington, Ky., is now engaged in schooling The Devil, by Major Richards—Patagonia, at taking the jumps. The Devil is now seven years old and was a prominent handicap horse in his day. He is well entered in the big jumping races east this year.

Winner—B, c, by Artillery—Otyanna (trained by E. C. Reynolds).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Winkfield kept Spec in the good going all the way and raced Safeguard to subjection in the first half, but was doing his best at the end to stall off Royal Deceiver. The latter was probably best and should have won. He was cut off on the backstretch and Henderson raced him in the deep going to get to the leaders. Safeguard tired, but showed early speed and was off well in motion. Memphian was in the heavy going all the way and ran a poor race. Kiwasa ran well and will bear watching.
Overweights—Spec, 14 pounds.
Spec, show, out. Royal Deceiver, show, 3 to 2. Safeguard, show, 2 to 1. Memphian, show, out.

Winner—B, g, by Russell—Prudery (trained by S. J. Charles).
Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Russellton broke from the outside on the path and Fuller picked the good going all the way, raced El Rey to defeat in the first half and stood off a challenge from Benson Caldwell, and then Peat. The latter finished fast. Benson Caldwell appeared like the winner at the turn into the homestretch, but weakened when under pressure. El Rey was swerving all over the track in the last eighth. The saddle on the Black Scot slipped and Buchanan pulled him up. Passaic was on the inside in deep going all the way. Gin Spray ran poorly.
Scratched—(37115) Aratoma, 142; 37065 Insolence, 129.

Winner—B, g, by The Bard—Water Lily (trained by J. Mayberry).
Went to post at 3:02. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second driving. McIntyre kept Bard of Avon in the good going all the way, wore the leaders down in the stretch run and got up in the last ten yards. Belvino carried Lady Alberta into the deep going next to the inside rail at the furlong post, bumped into her a couple of times and knocked her off her stride, for which he was disqualified. Lady Alberta was always a sharp contender. Our Jessie was away all tangled up, closed a big gap and finished fast. Alpaca showed early speed, but quit. Lady Alberta was placed second and Ben Frost third. The judges overlooked Our Jessie. She finished a half dozen lengths in front of Ben Frost.
Scratched—37102 Buccleuth, 106; 37065 John A. Clarke, 103; 37115 Maltster, 103.

Winner—B, c, by Miser—Ray o'Light (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post at 3:38. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Robbins picked his going with Rankin, kept him on the extreme outside all the way, raced Miss Shanley and Kaloma into subjection in the first half and came away without much effort in the stretch run. Miss Shanley hung on longer than usual, but was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Flintlock. The latter backed slowly and finished in the deep going. So did Kaloma. Major Tenny quit when he seemingly had the race won.
Overweights—Miss Shanley, 14 pounds; Lennep, 1.
Rankin, show, out. Miss Shanley, show, 2 to 1. Flintlock, show, 3 to 5. Major Tenny, show, out.

Winner—B. f. by St. Leonards—Miss Milly (trained by S. W. Streett).
Went to post at 4:11. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ma'mselle beat the barrier and got off running, took the path in the first sixteenth and kept it all the way. Paramount began slowly, but closed a big gap and finished fast. Fair Lass was crowded out into the heavy going for the entire trip. She ran a good race and is worth remembering. Dodona showed early speed, but tired and quit after going three furlongs. Helen Hay got off badly and made up much ground. Overweights—Ma'mselle, 14 pounds; Helen Hay, 1; Gold Bride, 1; Amusement, 4.
Ma'mselle, show, 2 to 5. Paramount, show, 1 to 2. Fair Lass, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Patton—Diana (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 4:42. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Potheen outclassed the field and was at home in the going. He lay along with King Barleycorn for the first mile, then shook him off in the stretch run and won with a lot in reserve. Erne came fast through the stretch and, finishing between The Way and Satin Coat, got up in the last stride. The Way ran a good race and was under a drive all of the last quarter. Satin Coat came fast around the turn, but tired in the final drive. King Barleycorn showed much early speed and sustained it well for a mile, but tired badly in the final quarter.
Scratched—(37045) Alfred C. 101; 37115 Shut Up, 93; 37120 Chickadee, 97; 37099 Mary Moore, 98.
Overweights—False Lead, 2 pounds; Compass, 11.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:15.
Winner—B. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Miss Lexington (trained by J. Harris).
Went to post at 2:13. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Harry Thatcher got away running and led throughout, drawing away fast when called on at the end. Cathello was the only serious contender and best of the others, showed good speed and should improve. Myrtle H. ran a fairly good race. Master, away poorly, made up much ground and was going fast at the finish. Fairbury appeared sore and was always outrun and ran a bad race. Frank Pearce received a bad ride and can do better. Intrepid favors soft going, but closed up ground from a bad start.
Scratched—37088 Rose of Hilo, 107; 37121 Dora I, 99; 37090 Lapidus, 99.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16 1/2, 1:42.
Winner—Ch. c. by Prince Royal—Trophy (trained by T. G. Ferguson).
Went to post at 2:36. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Andrew Ring worked a rough journey in the first half and waited overlong before making a move. He came up fast on the stretch turn and won Merwan down after a long, hard drive in the stretch and won going away. Merwan was lucky at the start and made the most of his advantage, displayed a good turn of speed and stuck to his work gamely. Young Marlow stumbled and was nearly left at the start, then made up ground quickly, but the effort tired him at the end. He should improve. Brunel followed the pace closely for six furlongs, but failed to stay.
Corrected weights—Tortulla, 112.
Overweights—Baby Bird, 5 pounds.
Andrew Ring, show, 1 to 5. Merwan, show, 2 to 5. Young Marlow, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Crighton—Sevens (trained by W. B. Sink, Jr.).
Went to post at 3:02. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Rose Farr is a quick beginner and with a lucky start drew away from the others at once and led by a wide margin, easing up at the end and was much the best today. Hocco, away well and vigorously ridden, ran a game and improving race. Floriana Bell was a lucky third. Ravelana is a good looker and was closing up fast at the end. Selected was away poorly, but moved into prominence in the first quarter running on the extreme outside and apparently failed to stay under a bad ride. Knobbhampton ran a fast first quarter and tired. He appeared big and fat and was evidently short. He appears like a good one.
Corrected weights—Easter Lady, 109.
Overweights—Hocco, 2 pounds.

Winner—Blk. f. by Midlothian—Twinkle (trained by W. B. Jennings).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Nigrette was lucky at the start, led throughout and gamely held her own in a long final stretch drive and won going away. Hermencia followed the winner's pace closely and moved up fast in the stretch, but tired in the final sixteenth and was swerving badly. Dupont was interfered with at the start, but closed a big gap and might have won with an even start. Frank Woods was dizzily outrun and unexpectedly failed in his accustomed stretch run. Tufts appeared short and was evidently outclassed. He favors soft going.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Stapella (trained by J. J. Marklein).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Laura F. M. was away running and made the most of her advantage and led by a big margin until the last furlong, where she commenced to tire rapidly, but held on long enough. Barklyite, lucky at the start and vigorously ridden, just failed to get up after waiting a trifle too long before being sent along. Mexicana, away badly, closed up much ground. Divina was nearly left and made up ten lengths on the leaders. Dollie Wiethoff went a good five furlongs and then fell back.

†Coupled in straight betting. Time, 243, 49, 1:153, 1:40.

Time, 24 1/2, 49, 1:15 1/2, 1:40.
Winner—Ch. c. by Goldfinch—Lucania (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Cunard was given a lucky start and skillful ride, took the lead on the first turn and practically cantered for the first seven furlongs, but was brought to a mild drive at the end. He ran quite sore and as if short and far outclassed the field. Proper, away poorly, went wide on the first turn, was badly messed about and kept out of the race too long, but closed up like a good one in the last quarter and was wearing the winner down at the end. He requires a strong ride and can carry weight. Searcher moved up very fast on the stretch turn and appeared like winning momentarily, but was outsprinted in the last quarter by the first two. Claude had scant chance with the ride given him. Dainty was short and is highly tried and can do better. Bragg is coming around and stepped a good six furlongs.

Cunard, show, 1 to 4. Proper, show, out. Searcher, show, 3 to 5. Dainty, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Br. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Virgie Wright (trained by L. J. Kuss).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Marcy took kindly to the sticky going and, going to the front on the far turn, won as his rider pleased. Henry's Sister, under a hard ride, managed to hold her position and was slightly interfered with when Dunsbro fell. Golden Maid ran her race. Dunsbro slipped and fell at the far turn, unseating Mountain. Pat Garrett hurled him, but stumbled and fell, unseating Cunningham. Dr. Hart and Omelia were left flat-footed.
Overweights—Henry's Sister, 5 pounds; Floria, 5; Lady Mercer, 2.
Marcy, show, out. Henry's Sister, show, evens. Golden Maid, show, 4 to 5. Dunsbro, show, 3 to 5. Pat Garrett, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 27 1/2, 54, 1:11.
Winner—Ch. g. by Magnet—Phoebe, by Grinstead (trained by J. T. Patton).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. The Phantom was much the best, went to the front at the start, held his field safe all the way and won as his rider pleased. Dr. Carr skinned the rail at the stretch turn and finished fast. Mabel Hurst tired in the stretch run. The others were always outrun.
Scratched—37113 Boittie, 111.
Overweights—Dr. Carr, 1 pound; Belle Barnard, 1 1/2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

For a private price, H. M. Ziegler, of Cincinnati, has bought of Forsythe Brothers the three-year-old brown colt, Gorey, by Flying Dutchman—Sister, by King Alfonso. Gorey won three races as a two-year-old last year, and is a half-brother to Sister Mary.

W. O'B. Macdonough, the owner of Ormonde, has lost four high-class brood mares by death. They were Anarchy, dam of the two-year-old Precious Stone, now winning on the coast for G. B. Morris; Countess Langden, Sapienta and Enthusiast.

The well known broodmare, Citronella, by St. Simon, dropped a bay filly last Friday morning by Commando, at Castleton Stud, the place of J. R. & F. P. Keene. The youngster is said to show good size and conformation.

Col. E. F. Clay has had the misfortune to lose by death the good bay mare Nutshell, by Hindoo—The Niece, she by Alarm—Jaconet, by Leamington. Just before her death she slipped a fine foal by Sir Dixon.

Jockey Ranch will start east in a few days from San Francisco to report to the Vanderbilt people, for whom he is to ride in France next season.

J. B. Chicago. If it was expressly stipulated your bet was not to go unless Ma'mselle increased the sum deposited to $100 or more the bet was a draw. Otherwise it lost.

Jack, Chicago. Your parolee on Amigari and Byron Rose won. There being no show odds against Pyrrho he ceased to be a factor.

Jockey Winner O'Connor will sail for France in a day or so to fulfill his engagements to ride in England.

Inquirer, Detroit, Mich. Against Planet and Red Man coupled fair odds would be 4 to 5.

J. L., Chicago. Odds published as received by us. Will investigate.

J. T. K., Chicago. Morris entry only coupled in straight betting.

F. G., St. Louis. Jim Gore II. was even money to show Friday.

E. K. Wheeler has sold War Cry to Ed Trotter for $800.

W. Walker has bought the mare Compass for $500.
